January 2024

First Presbyterian Church ■ Cedar Rapids ■ Iowa

Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home[k] and ate their food with glad and generous[l] hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Acts 2:46-47

One of the realities of our post-pandemic world is that the realm of virtual gatherings is here to stay. In some ways, we have found great benefits. There are those who are ill, homebound, or traveling, who have been able to continue to be a part of our worshipping community. Oftentimes business and meetings can be streamlined in virtual spaces. We can look up and access all kinds of material to enhance our study of scripture, our discipline of prayer, or our exploration of meditation. There is much that we can choose to do on our own.

However, another lesson we've learned is that there are intangibles that can be accessed only by being together, gathered in the same place. There is something about lifting up your voice alongside others and belting out a familiar hymn. There is a palpable energy in the sanctuary as we greet each other and share the peace (until Ted's organ notes pull us reluctantly back to our pews). There is a warmth to the clasped hand during fellowship time. There is much that happens better together.

It is with that view that we are trying a new thing here at First Presbyterian: Spotlight Sundays. Those Sundays will be full of the intangibles: special music presentations, extended fellowship opportunities (with food), noted speakers.

Spotlight Sundays will also be cognizant of the breadth of our membership, with offerings for persons of all ages and ways to connect for 9 year olds and 90 year olds alike.

We recognize that there are many things that can pull us away from gathering together in the same physical space, and we want to equip you for those times when life gets chaotic. But we also want to call you to commit yourself to being a part of our gathered community of faith. Mark each of these Spotlight Sundays on your calendar now (more are being planned as we speak), make an internal commitment to attend in person, and know that you will be refreshed in your faith and reconnected with others. Spotlight Sundays are also the perfect time to invite a friend, a neighbor, or someone else you might wish to introduce to our community of faith.

I look forward to a year of spiritual growth and building a solid foundation at First Presbyterian with you.

Peace,

Pastor Heather

January Spotlight Sunday Building Dedication & Whole Church Potluck

January 21st

Make a commitment to join us on January 21st as we are able to fully enjoy and use all of our restored and renovated spaces. Lift your voice in worship, take a tour of everything from offices, to youth rooms, to food pantry and hospitality spaces (we’re opening everything up, and finish off with potluck dinner in the Fellowship Hall. We’ll provide the main and Pastor Heather’s pretty excited to break in the kitchen by whipping up a congregation size batch of her aunt’s parmesan potatoes. Bring a side...or a dessert...or just yourself for this day of celebration.

January Sermons

January 7

Luke 3:21-22

Trusting Our Belovedness

In the story of Jesus’ baptism, the heavens part open and the voice of God wraps Jesus in joy and loving care. Some translations of Luke 3:22 read, “in you, I find happiness and delight.” Therefore, we can conclude that we are also the source of God’s joy. We are released from the trap of self-rejection. When we trust our belovedness, we live and give fully.

January-February

Series: The Things You Were Taught

Luke begins his gospel with an explicit purpose statement: he wants his friend Theophilus “to have certainty concerning the things you have been taught” (Luke 1:4) about Jesus and, “the things that have been accomplished among us” (Luke 1:1). To provide that certainty, Luke wrote an “orderly account” about the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. We learn what a follower of Jesus is called to be and how we are called to proclaim the good news of Jesus. We learn, too, of God’s heart for the outcast, and the welcome all can expect when they return home to God. As we read through Luke and Acts this month, we’ll explore Luke’s take on Jesus’s message and life.

January 14

Luke 5:1-11

We’ll begin by looking at some of the people that Jesus invites to follow him and the company he keeps. From fishermen to tax collectors, men and women, Jesus casts a broad net as he shows us what it means to fish for people.

January 21

Parables Aplenty

The Gospel of Luke is chock full of parables, many of which are favorites of his followers (think Good Samaritan & Prodigal Son). This Sunday we’ll read and look at several parables, trying to build a big picture of the lessons Jesus was teaching.

January 28

TBD

Pastor Heather will be traveling this weekend and we will welcome a guest preacher this Sunday.

Annual Meeting

Join Us During Lent for Wandering Hearts

February 14th-March 30th

Like many of us, Peter has a wandering heart. His journey is not polished, or linear, or perfect, but he is always tethered to the love of God. When you look closely at Peter's story, you find Jesus at each step along the way—offering him abundance, catching him when he begins to sink, challenging him when he stands in the way, washing his feet, predicting his betrayal, and offering him agapá love. This Lent, we're joining Peter in figuring out faith. We're not idolizing or vilifying him; instead, we're hoping to wander alongside him, open to what we might learn about Jesus (and ourselves) by stepping in his shoes.

Lenten Small Groups

Have you found your community group at First Presbyterian Church? In addition to attending worship on Sundays, you are invited to join one of our community groups. These are groups that meet for a variety of reasons, including social, musical, educational, and more. During the Lenten Season (February 14th – March 31st, 2024) we will offer small study groups on Sundays at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m., Wednesdays at 6 p.m. and 7:30 pm., online, and possibly on Thursday evenings. If you are interested in helping to facilitate one of these groups with already prepared discussion materials (likely videos with a list of questions), please let Stasia know at Stasia@fpccr.org. Our Lenten theme for 2024 is "Wandering Hearts." If you haven't already joined a community group, we hope you will consider doing so in 2024!

Session Notes

COMMISSION REPORTS:

Care Commission (Shari Stewart): Noted that the congregation will be reminded during announcements to wear their nametags on Sunday. Progress was discussed on the Welcome Table, which will centralize all printed information and sign-ups. Funds are set aside for its construction. Appreciation was noted for Stasia's planning of the Advent Festival & scavenger hunt on Nov. 19. Advent by Candlelight, with Washington H.S. Madrigals, is set for Dec. 15, with reception following. Blue Christmas will be held Dec. 19, and Shari will send personal invitations to those who have experienced loss in the past several years.

Discipleship Commission (Dave Kutter): Commission has submitted a budget request for 2024. The Christmas Joy Offering will be received in December; Dave is writing a congregational letter.

Proclamation Commission (Alisa Shields): The commission is looking at different ways to market to new move-ins in our immediate neighborhood and discussed a "welcome to the neighborhood" letter/flyer for incoming residents of the new construction near us (incl. Banjo Block). Commission discussed tweaking meeting schedules for youth and is soliciting feedback.

Administrative Commission (Dave Crew): Full-time employees were presented options and opted to change their insurance coverage to Wellmark. Finance Committee reports budget being on-track for the year. Construction loan balance is at $388,000, with the next payment of $180K due in May. The Property Committee reports adequate funds from insurance and gifts to finish the current reconstruction project and the bottom line looks good. Next month, Alliant Energy's installation of new lights upstairs will be completed. Working to gather further chair replacement samples for Fellowship Hall,

Sharing space with the Greater Works Church is going well — nice people, respecting our building; however, Heather will address the issue of sound leakage from their band practice in the Wernimont Room during our worship. If GWC elects to continue the arrangement, we will likely reinstate the lease in January.

PASTOR'S REPORT: In trying to reach a level of attendance and engagement seen on our 175th Anniversary Sunday, the Session reviewed that day which had included special music, exhibits, kids/family events, and Mark Stouffer Hunter on our history. Discussed ideas for achieving that energy again, such as a monthly "Signature Sunday" with special events, personally inviting a friend, augmented fellowship, encouraging family activities, a presentation (through Fred Kiser) by Kirkwood's guest vocal jazz composer. Discussed getting creative with January's Annual Meeting of the Congregation.

There was discussion of opening lines of communication to Commission members, especially after Session meetings, to keep information flowing on a timelier basis. Pastor Hayes suggested a Session evaluation of the Commission structure at the December meeting, with possibility of tweaks being made in January.

The Session congratulated and encouraged Pastor Hayes in her upcoming role as moderator of the Presbytery of East Iowa and her nomination to be a Commissioner to General Assembly in Salt Lake City in June 2024.

Next meeting: Thursday, Dec. 14 at Heather Hayes home. 6 pm - gathering; 6:30 pm -. dinner; 7 pm -Session Meeting.

A motion to adjourn was made at 8:50 pm, with prayer by Pastor Hayes giving thanks for good, meaningful discussion and asking for open hearts, lives and homes to God's joyous presence in fresh ways this Advent season.

Respectfully submitted,

Betsy Caszatt
Clerk of Session

Rev. Heather Hayes
Moderator

In case of Inclement Weather

Our general rule is that the church building will be closed any time the Cedar Rapids Community School District cancels or delays classes. Since conditions can change quickly, you should be in touch with your committee chair, music director or group leader regarding evening activity cancellations. We do our best to always have worship services on Sunday, despite the weather. If weather closing is necessary on a Sunday morning, we will announce closures via email, Facebook and through KCRG. As always, we hope that your first consideration is one of personal safety and that you will use your best judgement regarding driving in inclement weather.

If services are ever canceled on a Sunday morning, make sure and look for content available on our YouTube channel. Even if services aren't canceled, you always have the option to tune in to our livestream if the snow and ice keep you indoors.

A New Year, New Opportunities

It is a new year and I am excited to spend it together with each of you. God is at work here at First Presbyterian Church, within its members, its programs and within the youth who continue to come and be filled with connections, God's word, and growth. God is inviting each of us to awaken to this new movement and to truly be alive to Him who presents us with each new day. It is an opportunity to allow a new season to help us proclaim just how faithful our God is.

It is an opportunity for us to forget our mistakes and failures as we look forward to what a new year can bring us. It is a moment for us to see God resurrect our lives, not just with new years resolutions or goals, but with new possibilities. We serve a God who makes all things new. He continues to walk beside us with each new step that we take. He fills our hearts with a renewed hope as we enter into a new year.

He is a God who provides us with an everlasting assurance of a brighter future with Him. So as we embark on this journey into the year of 2024--love again, dream again, risk again, and begin again. As we continue to serve and worship the majestic creator of our lives may we also continue to give Him the glory for the work He will continue do in and through us.

Happy New Year and continued blessings to you in this new year.

In His Service,
Stan Letscher
Director of Youth Ministry

New Year's Resolution: Resolve to Wear Your Nametag

What's the easiest resolution to make in the new year? Resolve to wear your name tag on Sunday mornings! Not only does that help build community through conversation between members, it is a part of our hospitality to our visitors. We may all know who we are, but a first time visitor is helped to feel welcome when names are easily visible. As a reminder, we have red baskets for collection of name tags after the service.

If you have misplaced your name tag, there is a clipboard signup in the narthex to receive a new one. Also, we'll be offering disposable name tags to our visitors, so let's make sure that they aren't the only people with their names prominently displayed.

Thanks for taking this easy step to help FPC be a more welcoming place.

Call for Devotional Writers

One of the items that we love to offer during special seasons of the church are our in-house devotionals. Comprised of reflections and art created by our members, they can add a depth of community to the experience of any season. It is our hope to offer such a devotional this year for Lent. Our theme is Wandering Hearts and will look at the life of Peter and incorporate phrases from Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing. We'd love for you to consider submitting:

- Reflections on a journey you've taken.
- A lesson you've learned on the road (literally or of life).
- Stories of companions met along the way.
- Moments of exploration of your own faith.

Contact Pastor Heather to be included or for more information/inspiration. Lent is 40 days, so we have plenty of places for you to share your story.

Finish Line Approaching!

Building Updates

Finish Line Approaching!

Building Updates

As this newsletter goes to print, we're waiting for the final inspection of the kitchen by the Cedar Rapids fire marshal. Then it is some polishing of floors and we'll be back! Of course it will take some time to fully move back in, hang artwork on the walls, and all those things which make a space feel like home (or church), but it feels so good to be on this end of a very long project. Make sure to mark your calendars for January 21st, when we will be dedicating the space and have all the nooks and crannies open to the public.
